Holiday Sale of Ready-To-Wear

An Innovation in Christmas Selling

IN PAST YEARS it has always been our custom to hold a pre-inventory sale of ready-to-wear immediately after Christmas. This year we advance this sale and give customers a Holiday Sale of Ready-to-Wear. Our idea is that in many cases the advertised items will prove most acceptable gifts. This is especially true of furs, coats, silk petticoats and silk kimonos. Notwithstanding Christmas buying will be at its height Monday and Tuesday, we have made ample preparation in the Garment Section to handle our Holiday Sale with facility.

W. J. BRYAN AND WILSON CONFER

looking over some letters in an outer office. "I didn't mean that you should find me out here," said the governor as he shook Mr. Bryan's hand and escorted him into his private office. The big door of the private office was wide open and the "open door" policy, which Mr. Wilson inaugurated here, enabled spectators, who freely come and go in the ante room, to see the two men in conference.

BANK DEPOSITS OF TEXANS, $100,000,000

Austin, Tex., Dec. 21.—According to a statement issued today by the state banking department there are $100,000,000 now in individual deposits in the 744 state banks of Texas, which is an increase of $27,000,000 since September 4. Overdrafts increased $20,000,000, due to the movement of the cotton crop. The total reserve on demand deposits is 50 percent. There is an increase of 16 banks and trust companies since September 4.

RECORD HOLIDAY TRAVEL TO EAST ON TEXAS & PACIFIC

Holiday traffic on the Texas & Pacific road Friday night was the heaviest in the history of the road. Owing to the large number of El Pasoans making reservations, two extra Pullman were attached to train No. 4 to handle the crowds. At Big Springs the train will be increased to two sections to accommodate the heavy travel for points in East Texas and as far as St. Louis.

All kinds, all sizes, all prices—for everybody—useful gifts. Open evenings. Krakauer, Zerk & Moyer, Supts., Inc., 117 San Francisco Street.

DEATHS AND BURIALS

BABY DIES; INQUEST HELD.

Infant Espinosa, infant son of Francisco Espinosa and wife, who reside in the rear of the saloon at Seventh and El Paso streets, died Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock, of injuries received at the time of birth, according to the verdict of coroner James J. Murphy, who held the inquest. The child was born Thursday morning. There was no physician in attendance at the time of the birth or at the time of its death. Interment will be made this afternoon in the Concordia cemetery.

MRS. FANNIE DERR.

Mrs. Fannie Derr died Friday morning at 5:30 o'clock at her home, 111 Putnam street. The funeral service will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence. Mrs. Derr was about 70 years old. She was among El Paso's pioneer women, having lived here for over 30 years. She is survived by her husband, Paul Derr; three daughters, Mrs. E. P. Kessler, Mrs. C. E. Waterhouse of El Paso, and Mrs. C. E. Akers of Berkeley, Calif.; a son, J. C. Derr, of Stockton, Calif., and several grandchildren. Her son is expected to arrive in El Paso Sunday morning.

MRS. PETRA REYES AND CHILD.

Mrs. Petra Reyes, aged 22 years, died at the Bruppie hospital, of smallpox, Saturday morning. Her little son, 13 months old, Francisco Reyes, died of the same disease only a few hours previously. Both were buried immediately in Concordia cemetery.
